

Managing Hot Work Using FM Global's Hot Work Permit System

Skill Level

Basic

Course Description

Managing Hot Work Using FM Global's Hot Work Permit System is a free, interactive tutorial available exclusively to FM Global clients that identifies the dangers of hot work operations and drives home the importance of managing hot work using FM Global's Hot Work Permit System. The course takes less than one hour to complete, and is currently available in English, French, German, Korean, Mandarin Chinese, and Spanish.

Target Audience

- Facility personnel responsible for performing or overseeing hot work operations.

Upon completion of this course, you should be able to understand:

- Definition of hot work and its various forms
- Leading causes of losses attributed to hot work
- Components of FM Global's Hot Work Permit System
- Steps to complete before, during and after conducting hot work operations
- Responsibilities of the fire safety supervisor and fire watch
- Importance of the fire watch and monitoring

